YOUR VISION, OUR EXPERTISE

To help you create every detail of the courtroom environment you envision, Sauder® Courtroom Furniture offers an extensive portfolio of seating options and furnishings, as well as design assistance and project coordination.

CUSTOM BENCH END STYLES

Courtrooms are significant architectural spaces, and a reflection of the communities they serve. Bench ends are a prominent visual piece of the courtroom environment. With a selection of over 100 standard solid wood ends and the flexibility to produce custom styles, Sauder Courtroom can help you find or create a bench that meets your needs and aesthetic.

Working together, we can elevate standard designs to custom concepts, without adding significant costs. Share just what you envision.

BENCH BODY STYLES

Solid wood and upholstered benches are available in straight, mitered or radius configurations, all offering the comfort, style and quality expected from Sauder® Courtroom Furniture. All the benches feature ergonomically contoured seats for maximum comfort, as well as an array of standard wood species or unique species to meet your specifications.

RADIANCE™ CURVED BENCHES

Radius benches feature true bent solid wood seat construction with the same ergonomic contour as straight or plywood veneer curved back benches. All standard ends and accessories are available. Each bench is available in infinitely variable concentric radii for a perfect fit in any space.
